The ball game here Sunday was won by the home team. The San Francisco Juvenile Clothiers were the opposing nine and a fine game was played. The bout is for twenty rounds and a large crowd from here will attend. Manager Grennan of the Vallejo Club is promoting the contest.

"Belle Brandon," one of Vineburg's charming young lady reporters was in town last Sunday. While here Belle found time to stop in and see Archie McKiver, for whom she will act as assistant in reporting the El Verano news for the Index-Tribune in the near future. Belle said that Easy Jim, Vineburg's reporter, was too busy with his widow, or he would have accompanied her here, and that he had so many fair reporters down his way that she would be glad to go to El Verano, "the only town in the land," Belle says. She asserts that Easy is a devil among the ladies.

On Thursday of last week our worthy citizen, M. F. Mullen, passed another mile post in his journey through life, it being his 59th birthday. A magnificent pipe of Irish bog oak arrived that day from friends at home in Ireland, as a token that he was not yet forgotten there after an absence of 40 years. Mr. Mullen is veteran railroad man and a pensioner of the Southern Pacific railroad, which corporation he served for 37 years as station agent in different parts of the state. At present he is filling the position of Postmaster at El Verano and has brought all the regularity and correctness into his official duties for which he was noted during his railroad career. This sterling and patriotic citizen is still husky and alert. It is the wish of his friends "that he may grow younger as he grows older" and live many happy years to enjoy the "pensive pipe" which came far over the sea to gladden his birthday.

Today we are celebrating our great national holiday. The star spangled banner, the fairest flag that ever rode the breeze, is evident everywhere. The Democrats are exulting over the nomination of Wilson and Marshall and the Republicans are enthusiastic over their standard bearers Taft and Sherman, but when the smoke of battle clears away next November, whether victory perches on the Democratic or Republican standard we will all be loyal Americans, thank God, and proudly join in the refrain:

"The Stars and Stripes shall never kiss the dust.
The sword of Justice never idly rust;
Oh, our hearts are brave and true
To our red, white and blue
Love for God and home and country is our trust."

ARCHIBALD MCKIVER.

BERT STOCKWELL STABBED TO DEATH

Tragedy Took Place in Fairfield, Solano County, Last Monday Night

Bert Stockwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stockwell of this city, was stabbed in the breast in Fairfield, Solano county, last Monday night and died instantly. The deed was committed by a man named Roberts, who was arrested shortly after the killing and is now held for murder. The cause of the tragedy was a dispute over money matters in Neilson's saloon. Later on Roberts, who conducted a restaurant adjoining the saloon, entered his place of business and securing a butcher knife lay for Stockwell. As the young man was passing the restaurant on his way home the murderer inveigled him into the place and as he entered the door plunged the knife into his heart, causing instant death.

Young Stockwell, the victim of the dreadful tragedy, was a Sonoma boy, having lived here with his parents up to a short time ago. He was of a kindly disposition and was universally well liked in this valley, where he was best known. He was married less than two years ago and leaves a widow residing in Benicia, besides a father, mother and three brothers, who live in Sonoma.

The Times of Vallejo gives the following details of the tragedy: "Bert Stockwell was stabbed and instantly killed here Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock by George Roberts. The body of Stockwell lies at the morgue in Suisun, awaiting the coroner's inquest, which was held late yesterday afternoon, and Roberts is locked up in the county jail."

"The two men had been playing cards during the afternoon in the saloon of J. J. Nielson. The game finally wound up in a row over the ownership of half dollar. After angry words had passed between them, Roberts went into an adjoining room, in which he conducted a lunch counter, picked up a long butcher knife and plunged it into Stockwell's left breast, the weapon piercing the heart and causing instant death."

"Roberts had been here several months conducting a lunch counter in the same building occupied by the saloon where the murder occurred. Heretofore he has been known as a quiet, inoffensive man. Stockwell's home was in Benicia, where he lived with his wife."

Stockwell was on his way home from another part of the county and had stopped over at Fairfield to see his brother-in-law about a position on a near-by ranch and was awaiting a message in regard to the same when he met Roberts and the tragedy followed, as described above.

J. J. Nielson, the brother-in-law, and owner of the place, was on an outing with his family in Lake county, when the murder was committed.

Stockwell's wife is a sister of Nielson. "The tragedy was witnessed by C. H. Nielson, brother of the owner of the saloon, the barkeeper who is known as "Billy" and several others who happened to be in the place at the time. All say that Robert's deed was a cold blooded murder, committed without cause or provocation."

"Both Roberts and Stockwell had been drinking some during the game of cards, but neither was drunk so occupants of the place say."

"Following the desperate deed, Roberts left the saloon and walked a few blocks away, where he was overtaken and captured by Deputy Sheriff E. J. Seever, who was immediately summoned from his office a short distance away. Roberts made no effort to resist arrest and when brought back to the scene of his bloody deed, he asked for a drink of whiskey, but refused to make any statement."

Will Nomination of Wilson Eliminate Roosevelt, the Bolter?

The nomination of Wilson by the Democrats at Baltimore last Tuesday was no doubt a bitter blow to Col. Roosevelt's scheme to precipitate a third party into the Presidential contest in November, as he had hoped the Democrats would nominate a Conservative instead of a Progressive as their standard bearer. As the thing turned out, however, he is up against it again. With the doughty Colonel in the field for a third term on a bolting or renegade ticket and Wilson, an avowed Progressive, heading a ticket for the Democratic hosts would give President Taft, the Conservative Republican nominee, a walk-over in the Presidential race. For be it known the forthcoming contest will all but eliminate party lines and it will resolve itself into a battle royal between the Conservatives, who stand for safe and sane measures on the one side, and the Progressives, whose radicalism and new-fangled ideas are almost revolutionary in their scope and a menace to the peace and business prosperity of the country.

Therefore we say, if Roosevelt wants to vent his spleen on the Republican party and its nominee for President we would suggest he better drop that new party idea and join hands with Wilson and his Progressive henchmen. But this would not suit the ambitions of the Colonel, who has other fish to fry in his insane yearnings for a third term, and everything must be subordinate to his ambition. The result will be that he will stand sponsor for a new party provided it names him as its candidate for the Presidency. This, as before remarked, will insure President Taft's re-election without a preadventure of doubt.

Dispatches from the East say that Governor Osborn of Michigan, one of seven Governors who met in Chicago and requested Roosevelt to become a candidate for the Republican nomination, has come out in a published statement voicing his sentiments against a third party and expressing a hope that Col. Roosevelt would abandon his plans for a convention in August and not be a candidate for a third term. Here in our own state, Rudolph Spreckels a true progressive, repudiates Roosevelt and will support Wilson, the Democratic nominee for the Presidency, and so it goes all along the line.

Summer Reading

The attention of the public is called to the recent addition to the public library of a large number of the best novels of the last few months, as well as many others of the last year or two. The titles have been chosen with exceptional care, and among them will be found a majority of the "best sellers" of the last year.

It is of course impossible for us to purchase very largely, but the additions of the last year will be found to offer a wide range of authors and types. Although the number of card holders has largely increased and the circulation has nearly doubled in a year, the shelves on any day afford almost anyone more than one book that will meet the demand for something good. If the book you especially wish is out, you can register your name for it and have it in turn.

Transients may withdraw books without cards on making a deposit.

Lovers of Dickens are particularly invited to examine the recently purchased set of his works in thirty volumes. This edition is the largest type Dickens ever printed, with hundreds of illustrations, and richly bound. This is Dickens' Centennial Year and interest in his novels is reviving everywhere. Why not re-read some of his tales of never-dying interest.

Among the books of the last few months of special interest and popularity may be noted "The Street Called Straight," "Queed," "Tante," "Fran," "Hearts and Masks," "The Harvester," "Following of the Star" and "The Motor Maid."

The Library is open from 7 till 8 p. m. daily, except Sundays and holidays, and between 2:30 and 5 o'clock on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

Librarian.

Judge Connick

Judge Clifton H. Connick of Humboldt County is making another canvass of the new first district for the Republican nomination for Congress in order that he may familiarize himself and fully understand the needs of the whole district.

It is not often that a candidate will make three trips through his district to meet the people, but this is true of Judge Connick. He is a man of the people and for the people at all times.

When he extends to you the grasp of friendship, you will immediately feel that it is not the usual "grasp of the every day politician, but a grip that springs from the heart and you will at once warm up his candidacy and become his friend.

In mentioning his candidacy the Orland Register says: "Judge Connick is a gentleman whom it is a pleasure to meet."

The Marysville Appeal recently said: "He is receiving encouragement from all quarters and has every assurance that his aspirations will be gratified. He is an able jurist and has made an excellent record. He is a strong friend of the great government project to reclaim the lowlands of the Sacramento Valley and the correction of the rivers so as to open them to navigation."

The Pt. Arena Record says: "Judge Connick stands for a square deal for all the people. The high and the low, the rich and the poor receive justice at his hands."

Are the Fly and Mosquito Dangerous?

The fly, with spongy feet, collects the invisible germs of diseases, spreads them over our food and poisons us with typhoid and cholera. The mosquito with its bite injects into our veins malaria and yellow fever. The bacteria of consumption, or grip, are everywhere present for us to breathe into our lungs. The blood which flows through our veins and arteries is our protection. It should contain healthy red and white blood corpuscles—capable of warding off these disease germs. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a blood medicine and alterative, made entirely without alcohol, a pure glyceric extract of bloodroot, golden seal, Oregon grape root, queen's root, mandrake and stone root, which has enjoyed a good reputation for over forty years. The refreshing influence of this extract is like Nature's influence—the blood is bathed in the tonic which gives life to the blood—the vital fires of the body burn brighter and their increased activity consumes the tissue rubbish which has accumulated during the winter.

M. MAGUIRE, Esq.

"About forty years ago while in Newark, New Jersey, I had chills and fever," writes Mr. MICHAEL MAGUIRE, of National Military Home, Kansas. "I went to Kansas City and in the spring of 1897 the chills and fever returned. Doctors and everything I tried failed to do me good. Finally I saw Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery advertised. I took one bottle of it and the chills vanished. In about a year afterward I felt them coming back so I got another bottle and have never had any symptoms of fever or ague since. That is all of twenty years ago, for I had the chills about twelve years before I started to take 'Golden Medical Discovery.'"

"Easy Jim" Tells in an Interesting Way all About the Week's Happenings in and About His Section of the Valley.

Emile Batto was a visitor to the Bay City on Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Miss Louisa Batto spent Tuesday with her schoolmate, Miss Anita Basaglia, of Sonoma.

The fruit season will soon be on for keeps from the looks of the earload of box shooks on Batto's Spur.

Henry Pape, one of Vineburg's well known citizens, has accepted the position of mixologist at Freeman's Palace Hotel, in Sonoma.

It is not so that Jim Small is buying hay. Some one presented him with a sample but it was so "tight" that he gave it to the poor.

A neat fence has been built around the school house lot here and improves its looks very much. Sanford of this place done the work.

We understand that one of our most popular society men will soon purchase an automobile. We hope so, for it is so sad to see young ladies hiking around here.

Fred Batto, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William Hiser, Miss Adie Andreux and Masters Henry Hiser and Frederick Batto Jr., motored to Petaluma Wednesday.

Our popular roadmaster, Ed. Johannsen, has purchased an automobile, and will in the future, as he has in the past, see that the roads in his district are kept in good condition.

Charles Saylor, the well-known section foreman of the N. W. P. R., with his efficient section crew, is at present working around the station here and his work shows he knows his business alright.

The legion of his friends in this vicinity were shocked to hear of the sad death of Bert Stockwell, as the young man was well-known and highly respected here and every one sympathizes for his bereaved parents. Rest in peace.

Mrs. Harry Kizer, wife of our local merchant, left on Tuesday morning to enjoy a well earned vacation. During her absence she will be the guest of friends and relatives in the bay cities. We wish the lady a pleasant trip and a safe return.

Frank Kennedy, a well known summer visitor of Vineburg for many years, left here Saturday morning for Carson City, Nev. Mr. Kennedy was foreman smelter at the Carson Mint from its opening in 1870 to its close in the year 1885. During his absence he will visit Lake Tahoe, Carson, Silver City, Dayton, Gold Hill, Virginia City and Carson Valley. There is something in the sagebrush desert that calls to an old timer like the blue sea to an old sailor, but that is alright. Have a good time, Frank.

Dear Old Easy:
Tomorrow's the grand old Fourth and I will if I live. Me for Kenwood and pleasure.

Well, now I was in Sonoma one day this week and was speaking to my esteemed friend, M. Topete, and he informed me that the article known as hot air was a very good one to carry in stock, as every one was using it, and I certainly believe him.

I was speaking to a gentleman the other day and the conversation turned to oil paintings—that is, masterpieces. He told me the most beautiful painting that he ever saw was Rebecca at the Well. Of course he had me blocked as I never saw Rebecca at the well. Oh, well what's the use.

My sweet little friend, Miss Emily Batto, is now the guest of her aunt Mrs. Chas McDevitt in the Bear Flag City, and we hope that no one will steal any of the baby's pretty brown curls.

I was real angry the other day when a lady friend of mine remarked that my old friend, Jap Valente, was slower than an ice wagon. I just told her that Jap would make good wherever you put him—in a ball room, behind a dry good counter, or in a 24-foot ring. Leave it to Jap.

Good night sweet reposes,
A bale of hay.
And all the clothesless.
Yours as ever
Viola.

AN UP-TO-DATE POULTRY FARM.

Messrs. Gigerich & Callahan's
El Nido Farm Near Vineburg
One of the Show Places
of Sonoma Valley

At Gigerich & Callahan's El Nido Poultry Farm, which adjoins the old Hyde residence on the south, extensive improvements are going on. These gentlemen have been so successful in the poultry business that they are now erecting a laying house 240 feet long by 24 feet in depth, which will accommodate 2,400 laying hens; a brooder house 75 feet long by 24 feet in depth, in which can be brooded 3,000 chicks; an incubator house of 10,000 eggs capacity and a feed room with storage space in keeping with other buildings. All of the structures will be of the most approved modern type with every convenience for handling the work expeditiously and keeping everything under strictly sanitary conditions. The mash mixer, feed cutter and grist mill will be operated by electric power, and the buildings are so laid out that the attendants can pass from one to the other and be under roof at all times. They are also putting on additions and modern improvements to their dwelling house and installing a pressure water system which will be operated automatically by electric power and will furnish water under high pressure at all points desired on the premises.

The success of Messrs. Gigerich & Callahan is only another proof of the oft repeated fact that if people will start with good stock and give proper care to all details, they can undoubtedly make money in the poultry business.

El Nido farm is one of the most picturesque sections of this beautiful valley and when the improvements now going on are completed it will stand well up in the front rank of modern up-to-date poultry farms.

Kills Quail Out of Season and Goes to Jail

Deputy Fish and Game Commissioner Henry J. Wicker of this city arrested Ray Dennis, a sixteen-year-old boy, a visitor from San Francisco, and a man named R. H. Morris for killing quail out of season. The arrest was made Tuesday on complaint of W. A. Lurch. The officer took the offenders before Justice Campbell, who found them guilty, and sentenced each to pay a fine of $25.00 or go to jail for twenty-five days. Not having the mazzina they were turned over to officer Wicker who took them to Santa Rosa Tuesday afternoon and lodged them in jail to serve out the sentences. The lad was subsequently sent to a reformatory.

Six Sons Act as Pall Bearers

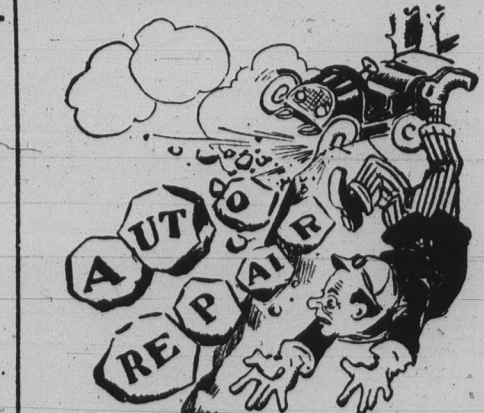

The funeral of Sonoma's oldest pioneer citizen, George W. Estes, took place last Saturday and was largely attended. The twelve sons and daughters of the aged patriarch were all present and six of the seven grown sons acted as pall bearers, while the seventh son acted as escort to the pioneer's widow. The funeral was one of the most impressive ever held in this city.

Stimulate Children?

Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very, very rarely." Ask him how often he prescribes a tonic for them. He will probably answer, "Very, very frequently." Then ask him about Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a strong and safe tonic for the young. Not a drop of alcohol in it.

Always keep a box of Ayer's Pills in the house. Just one pill at bedtime, now and then, will ward off many an attack of biliousness, indigestion, sick-headache. How many years has your doctor known these pills? Ask him all about them.

Hay Market

The condition of the hay market this week, Somers & Co., have this to say:

Receipts of hay are beginning to increase somewhat as was anticipated, the past week's arrivals amounted to 2420 tons in comparison with 2053 the week previous. Monday's arrivals were very heavy in fact the heaviest that have been received for a long time, over 900 tons being offered on the market. As a result of these conditions, the market is lower, especially for the medium grades of hay, which made up the bulk of shipments.

Baling is now in full swing throughout the State and, as considerable hay has been purchased for early shipment, there will, without a doubt, be much heavier arrivals from now until such time as the fields are cleaned up. The prices which are being paid in the country for hay are higher than can be realized on the local markets when freight is added. However, it is necessary for dealers to purchase hay for shipment in order to supply their demands, even though they be light. The late season together with the recent rain, has so delayed the harvest that the usual heavy shipments of hay will be very late this year, and this fact has up to the present, held prices to a very high range, which, in the opinion of most dealers, is higher than is warranted, considering the light demand and the large quantities of hay in neighboring states which can probably be sent to this market as soon as the California crop is in storage and carrying charges are added to it.

Considerable damaged hay is being sent into market, which can be disposed of only for stock hay, as feeders of work stock will not use it. The utmost care should be exerted on the part of shippers when loading to see that no damaged bales are sent to this market, for usually such hay can be disposed of at 1 cent points to better advantage than by sending it to the San Francisco or Oakland markets.

Stop! Look! Listen!

Self-Starters have arrived. Come in and get measured up. The price is $21.50 guaranteed.

WILLIAM McELROY DROPS DEAD.

Summons Came at His Broadway Home Early Monday Morning—He was an Old Pioneer.

William McElroy, for over fifty years a resident of this valley, dropped dead at his Broadway home early Monday morning, the cause of his sudden ending being heart disease.

Mr. McElroy came to this valley in the early sixties and for over forty years was engaged as cellarman of the Gundlach-Bundschu Wine Co. of Rhinefarm. He was both industrious and thrifty and when he resigned his position with the Gundlach-Bundschu Co. ten years ago, it was said he was worth at least $40,000 or $50,000, accumulated through careful saving and safe investments, and when he passed away he was one of the wealthy residents of this city. He was square in all his business dealings and expected the same treatment with his business associates.

It was Mr. McElroy's proud boast after he had reached his sixty-fifth birthday that he had never been sick a day in his life. However, some ten years ago he was seized with a slight attack of heart trouble and called in Dr. Walliser, who was practicing medicine in this place at the time. The doctor prescribed for his patient and following his physician's directions there had been no recurrence of the attack until the summons came Monday. Mr. McElroy had always expressed a desire when the end came to pass away just as he did.

The deceased was a native of Connecticut and aged 75 years. He leaves a wife and two daughters, to whom he was greatly attached, to mourn the loss of a good husband and an indulgent father, and who greatly appreciate the sympathy and aid of their friends and neighbors during their recent bereavement.

The funeral took place Wednesday from his late home on Broadway, the interment being in Mountain Cemetery.

Accident Near El Verano.

Mrs. Dick of San Francisco, a guest at the Fest Farm, while driving a cart on the county road near El Verano, one day this week, made a quick turn while rounding a corner of the road. The vehicle was overturned and the lady was thrown violently to the ground, striking on her head and badly lacerating the scalp. Dr. Leix was sent for, after the injured woman had been assisted to her home, and took several stitches in her scalp to close the gaping wound. At latest accounts Mrs. Dick's injury was rapidly healing.

With a number of other employees Hultzberg was engaged in erecting high potential poles with the aid of a derrick near Shellville and was struck on the head by the boom and his skull crushed. An inquest will be held by Coroner Blackburn on the remains of the unfortunate young man, who was a comparative stranger here.

Women!

If weak, you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from gentle herbs, acts in a natural manner, and has no bad results, as some of the strong drugs sometimes used. As a medicine—a tonic—for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui has been a popular success for over 50 years.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Anna Walden, of Gramlin, S. C., followed this advice. Read her letter: "I was so weak, when I first began to take Cardui, that it tired me to walk just a little. Now, I can do all the general housework, for a family of 9." Try Cardui for your troubles. It may be the very remedy you need.

Lost!

On Friday evening, June 7th, on way to graduating exercises in Union Hall, a gold fleur de lis pin, set with pearls. Valuable to owner as a keepsake. Suitable reward if returned to Lutgens Candy Store.

ABSENTMINDED.

Men of Genius Whose Thoughts Were Wont to Wander Astray.

Absorption in their work is often carried to such extremes as to make men of genius strangely oblivious to what is going on around them. Many amusing stories are told illustrative of this tendency to "absent-mindedness." According to Sir David Brewster, when Newton left a room to get anything he usually returned without it.

The physicist Ronelle was notoriously absentminded. One day while performing a laboratory experiment he said to his students: "You see, gentlemen, this caldron over the flames? Well, if I were to cease stirring it an explosion would at once occur that would make us jump."

As he spoke he involuntarily ceased stirring, and his prediction was fulfilled. The explosion took place with a frightful noise, every window in the laboratory was broken, and Ronelle's audience fled wildly outside.

It is related of a gifted ecclesiastic, Bishop Munster, that, returning home and finding his door placarded with the announcement, "The master of the house is out," he calmly remained in front of the door, awaiting his own return.

Buxton, the mathematical prodigy, during a visit to London was taken to see Garrick in "King Richard III." Afterward, being asked how he liked the play, he said he really did not know what it had been about, as he had been too busy counting the words spoken by the different actors and the number of times each went in and out.

Ampere in a moment of preoccupation penciled a problem on the back of a cab standing in the street and was vastly astonished when the starting of the cab caused his problem to disappear. Lombroso says that much the same thing happened to Giola, who, in the excitement of composition, wrote a chapter on the top of his bureau instead of on paper.—Ainslee's Magazine.

A Promising Lad.

Miss Ellis, descending the steps of Bennett & Buck's hardware store, met Mrs. Lane going up. "What they got?" Mrs. Lane demanded in a tone that said, "Nothing much, I guess!"

"I didn't look round," replied Miss Ellis. "I knew what I wanted," holding out an ungainly bundle, "and I got it—a hand bellows for my fireplace."

"I went in, and Mary Baker's third—no; fourth—boy come right up to me and asked what he could show me. I told him hand bellows. He brought some up and said it was a dollar."

"Is that the best ye can do?" I asked him.

"The very best," he says, "but I'll tell ye what I'll do, Miss Ellis," he says. "You don't look a very strong lady, and I'll fill it with wind for ye."

"If you want concessions," concluded Miss Ellis, "I recommend ye to go to that boy."—Exchange.

To the Editor of the Index-Tribune, Sonoma, Cal.:
